

The Doctor is in!

St. Matthew's parishioner Marge Blenkush has published her first novel, The Doctor of Bellechester. In 1959, Dr. Harold Merton, the kindly and caring GP for the rural village of Bellechester, ventures into London to find a young junior doctor he can mentor. Upon his arrival, a self-assured young woman with plans of her own, befriends him. Can an act of kindness change a life? Find out in this gentle, cozy read. The book is published in large print for easy reading.

Marge will be selling her book after the Masses on October 8 and 9. The book costs $20.00 (taxes included). For every book sold, $5.00 will be donated to CASA GUADALUPANA. After the Masses on the weekend of October 22 and 23 you are invited to participate in a book discussion. Refreshments will be served. The author will be available to sign books and answer any questions about the process of writing and publishing a book!
